

Christmas Ball Planned By Harbor JC Students

The traditional Harbor College Christmas Ball, honoring Winter 1961 graduates, will be held Friday December 9, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., in the Sunrise Room of the Long Beach Pacific Coast Club, Glenn G. Gooder, Dean of Student Activities, announced.

Special feature of the evening will be the surprise announcement of the identity of the outstanding man and woman members of the graduating class, a selection made on the basis of scholarship and leadership by a faculty-student committee from a list of nominees submitted by instructors in the eight divisions of the college.

The winners will be presented at the ball and honored by awards from the Associated Student Organization, dance sponsor.

Darrell Brewer and his band will provide music for the ball, which is semiformal, for couples only, and free of charge to ASO card holders. Guest and alumni tickets may be purchased in advance at the college finance office.

Thomas Bettis, chairman of the college dance committee, is in charge of arrangements for the event.

Sponsors are Messers and Mesdames Wendel C. Black, J. Reyburn Hatfield, Glenn G. Gooder, Richard Sanderson, Howard P. Lea, Robert V. Bacon, and Mr. Leo Sirakides.

Officers of the graduating class are Maureen Connolly, president, and Alan S. Pizer, vice-president. Dr. Robert V. Bacon is the class sponsor.

Motor vehicles in the United States consumed 55 billion gallons of fuel last year, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Beach City Symphony Schedules Concert

JOAN GEORGE

Y Wives Tell January Plans

Lisa Eichel, owner of a health food store in Hermosa and a nutrition consultant service, will speak to the Y Wives on "Keeping Fit." Lisa Eichel taught at Redondo High School Adult Education a course entitled "Health in the City Schools." Her 12 years experience as a health consultant and lecturer will benefit every homemaker and their family.

Y Wives' last meeting of 1960 is December 13. The Tuesday 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. meetings will resume at the YWCA 2320 W. Carson, Torrance on January 3, 1961.

This particular show, representing the wide diversity of art expression in Southern California, features a number of canvasses of the impressionistic, realistic and abstract schools.

The painters are Hans Burkhardt, Aimee Bourdieu, Milton Gershgoren, William Wolfson, Irma Attridge, Albert Kramer, Kalmon Aron, Kaza Laurs, Anders Aldrin, Christine Dailey, Max Bailey, and Carole Bernard. Sculpture is by Vic Houser.

The current show, P.O.P.'s fifth exhibit of the 1960 season, will be open through January 1, 1961.

Y Teen Talk

Welcome back. Hope you are becoming more and more interested in our Y-Teens.

Saturday night the Inner Club Council had a dance which was very successful. The music was played by our new record player. Which we are all very proud of.

Last Thursday many people enjoyed the Spaghetti Dinner given by the Junior Ti-Toppers. This club is a freshman club and they deserve a great deal of credit for the effort and co-operation they put into this dinner.

Two of our Y-Teen clubs are helping mentally retarded children have a better Christmas. The Torrettes are making painting smocks, and the Hi-Debs of South High School are making rag dolls, for these children. If you know of any organization who needs help call us at the Torrance YWCA FA 0-2255 and the Y-Teens will see what we can do to help.

Next teen-age dance will be December 23, hope to see you then.

For little brother and sister the Y-Wives are sponsoring a Marianne show December 10, call about tickets.
